Ukrainian Week

Washington, D.C.

Every year, a coalition of NGOs and Evangelical Churches from the United States and Ukraine organize a significant event in Washington, D.C. in early February. Ukrainian Week began in February 2022 (just a few days before the full-scale invasion) in the capital of the United States. In 2023, there are more than 500 representatives from Ukraine and the United States of America.

The purpose of Ukrainian Week

Advocacy and promotion of Ukraine's interests among the American community, leaders of political, business, church and analytical circles, as well as the establishment and strengthening of interregional partnership between cities and regions of Ukraine and the United States, which is based on eternal Christian principles.
