Invitation

The Ukrainian Week 2024 will be held from January 29 to February 3, 2024 in Washington D.C. This is one of the most significant events. The event aims to advocate and promote the interests of Ukraine among the American community, leaders of political, business, church and analytical circles, as well as to establish and strengthen interregional partnerships between cities and regions of Ukraine and the United States.

Ukrainian Week is held during these events at the best venues of the city, starting from the first days of February 2022.

The program of the Ukrainian Week 2024 is planned a number of events:

- Investment and Recovery Forum of Ukraine in cooperation with U.S.-Ukraine Business Council (USUBC) and Ukrainian American House;
- Ukraine-American Partnership Humanitarian Forum;
- The Ukrainian Fellowship Gathering in Washington, D.C., an annual gathering that has been held for about 20 years;
- Facilitating participation of representatives of the All-Ukrainian Council of Churches and Religious Organizations in the International Summit on Religious Freedom, one of the purposes would be raising awareness of Russia's war crimes in the issues of religion and faith;
- The Chaplaincy Forum. Forum brings together military chaplains, medical and social workers, as well as representatives of churches and religious organizations of Ukraine and the USA;
- Expo for Ukraine's support, a showcase that aims to present organizations, projects, and groups that practically provide various support to Ukraine;
- Gala concert "Together to Victory", we aim to bring Ukrainian singers; attendees will be able to meet soldiers of the Armed Forces of Ukraine and children of fallen heroes of Ukraine;
- As well as various round tables, personal meetings and press conferences.

More than 700 delegates from the Ukrainian diaspora of different states of the USA are expected to participate in the Ukrainian week. Also invited: congressmen, senators, government officials of the USA and Ukraine, deputies of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, city mayors, chairmen and deputies of local councils, chaplains of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, scientists, chairmen of church unions and associations, public figures, businessmen, philanthropists, pastors and priests and other participants from the USA and Ukraine.

An important event of the Ukrainian Week 2024 is the Humanitarian Forum. It will unite the military chaplains of Ukraine and the USA, military, medical and social workers.

The forum will raise a number of important issues for discussion and exchange of experiences with partners on:

1. Social direction of service: widows, orphans, families, mothers, the elderly, etc.)
2. Humanitarian aspect of service in the direction of: food delivery, medicine, restoration of housing, assistance to the military, etc.)

3. Spiritual, educational and psychological direction of ministry: evangelism, educational programs, psychological assistance.

The participation of philanthropists in the Ukrainian Week 2024 and the Humanitarian Forum is a very important component and will contribute to:

1. Further development of cooperation with aid providers in Ukraine with charitable, public, religious organizations and educational institutions of the United States on the development of high-quality and timely assistance to the Ukrainian people;

2. Informing strategic partners, religious and public organizations within the framework of the Ukrainian Week in Washington about the activities and development of social and humanitarian service in Ukraine;

3. Involving public and religious organizations of the United States in social and charitable activities in Ukraine (support for children of fallen soldiers, work with veterans, humanitarian and volunteer assistance, etc.).

All these events organized by the Ukrainian diaspora in the USA together with the Ukrainian-American Partnership's Christian Platform with the participation of guests from South Korea.

Taking into account the above, we invite you to participate at the Humanitarian Forum and join us at Ukrainian Week-2024 in Washington D.C.

Participation is by registration only, which expires on January 25, 2024. Please, use this link or QR to register.

Due to the limited number of available seats, we cordially ask you to register as soon as possible.
